Bull. in Dutch - should be translated in Eng. more people aboard who read Eng. than Dutch (don't want to say it's an insult to Eng speaking passengers but that your ships run to them is indication that you draw your chief income from Eng speaking peoples.

Docks should be was as squeezed dumbbore at least first breakfast session is over.

Also when got aboard saw no sign where table seatings were arranged there was a conspicuous one where deck chairs could be reserved and asking one of the deck <sup>1</sup>stewards apparently at least one of "boys" other side of black bd. where to go was first of the 4 times we asked some uniformed person where to go before we found place. It does seem a little sheet of directions for to.

The places where these services are to be found should be hand to passengers when purchasing tickets, or certainly when tickets are examined on pier when boarding ship; also passengers by letter or ticket number should be told when to report at pier in groups at half hour (or 20 minute intervals to avoid 2½ hr. or more wait in line. Those who do not show up at rt time should do the waiting, as how could have sep lines for 1st & other class passengers.

Then why does your placard, printed & framed on wall say deck chairs are dollar & you are charged 2.40. It is a bit of a joke to be on that placard!

This has certainly been a bit of a cruise. Do bud the last I plan with the Breda sponsorship should end this way. Tonight at before dinner and that meant 2pm at night this happened. Dinner has been as late as 10 pm. Anyway Andy (who I just learned tonight is very hot tempered and emotional) has fixing lobster dinner. As he was starting to mix what seemed a sauce. I said I preferred mine plain, Jack agreed. We were talking about ourselves when Andy who was turn it was to cook & when had not heard about

8 cross currents (at waves)
Rehder felt uncomfortable
We ate dinner about 9<sup>30</sup> p.m.
just warmed corn beef hash (apple), bread & peanut butter. Sardines, & coffee

Lunch at 3 p.m. was luna and swiss cheese & some nice fresh bread.

Dinner at 9 p.m.
plate Bean soup, corned beef hash generous helping. This because so rough

Here we are in ascension Bay
98th day - 268 days to come

Gentle morning breeze golden, rosy sun rise (only pink sheep in sky) but gone before I got camera. Yesterdays temperatures will be today's and tomorrow's. In a.m. almost feels like 50° and one wears sweater or flannel shirt for some hours at least, and they are comfortable to say least in the breeze that gets up with the sun. The wind that comes in exhilarating stimulation, and though its <sup>insistent</sup> persistence may not be to your liking it makes for comfortable energetic working. One can understand why the Mayas could do what they accomplished architecturally and in order directions (calendar) you can work a.m. from 5 to 12 just about - a 7 hr. day no less, siesta in 12 - or <sup>or</sup> even 4 hrs (or perhaps only 2 or 3, and then work 2-3 or 4 hrs more in siesta times in cool buildings high ceiled, & even in shade under thatch roof one is cool & comfortable and relaxed. Yes, but for the wind the temp. might be too warm & sun feel too hot. Without it a tropical paradise, but with it some irritability or much according to your temperament.

Tuesday 12 April

Up 6:30 a.m.
Tuesday in Holy Week
103rd day - 263 days to come

It was 10 a.m. before we got away from ship. Breakfast hour and boats to ready the same. Went to where beach join mangroves. Got a few things off eel grass bot. from Gracillaria; bunches of this on free hanging roots, got palanquin shrimp from it (as well as from sponge growths on attached roots).

Saved colored sponges from roots and some other things. Did I get few hydroids; did get some nice expanded anemones saved an
oc. root (2-half gal jars) about 2 p.m. Capt. began to think we were dragging and so he upped anchor & moved forward closer to reef: had to shift forward couple of fms till he got anchors (both this time down to suit him. Then there was couple of boats drifting in side of ship. Fended off with feet.

All hands to fish <sup>Maundy Thursday</sup>
105th day - 261 days to come

Spent most morning at job in swamp. Inward end of land so he speak - climbed about land.
- got besides few small fish 3-4 crabs
- Rehder party got largest. Also got 2 good sized alpheids, mud dwelling, &
2 transparent palaemonids

Paiber got quite an assortment of fish changed alcohol in bottles & vials put bottles away vials ready for typing.
Clark attended to yesterday's catch
Much warmer tonight

Big event of day jelly fish swarming. Has been going on since Clark noticed them ashore on — but have not been observed from ship before

It rained hard again last night but not as tempestuously as night before (17-18) the sea is smooth & rippled only but we are rolling a bit more than usual wind still East. At 4 p.m. sky over-cast.

Arr. at Puncu at 11 a.m.
111th day - 255 days to come

Was to have started at 12 midnight but did not get away till 2 a.m. Was instead of arriving at day break we got ashore at 11:00 a.m.
This made us <sup>too</sup> late to anchor at
S. end Cozumel. I felt all along the Capt. didn't want to — so he put it up to me again, rather of going on to easy anchorage, and back tracking later in week to S. end.

Tonight had jarre of <sup>mixed</sup> sweet pickles for very 1st time on trip! You'd think it only bottle on ship.
Tulum When I see his walled city (citadel) you wonder if fighting between cities didn't finish them off. Destruction of crops & crop lands would kill off

it too early, and at 5:30 Capt. Bent Andy and Rejder who wakes early out in boat to get trap; they got in light line, and brought heavier line to ship. Bottom material (fish) fragments were in the side of trap.
a little fish + several pos hydroids.
? is was it on bottom or did it scrape bottom. Rejder ~~is~~ sure wanted credit for anything. To be in on fish but I started getting traps ready when skipper moved in to take over. Went ashore + overturned rocks, + got 3-4 fish, several crabs shells with hermits etc. Fed did better on yesterday's site. Andy

Foggy, heavily overcast <sup>just stray rays of sunshine</sup> <sup>St. Swithun's Day</sup> <sup>197th day - 169 days to come</sup> of trip over. But not too cold to stand out doors. Got underway at about 4.30 a.m.

The shipping hub goes by. Families are carried along in barges; family wash out, play pens kids swing out over water. Did not get this pic. learned too late to get camera; barges go by fast. All sizes, almost all shapes; and, certainly all colors.

Cloudy most all day / sort of shirt sleeve weather. cows + horses dam on bank. <sup>in water</sup> <sup>lying down</sup> <sup>chewing</sup> ~~Shops~~ <sup>large repair shops</sup> all along the Rhine especially in Dutch particularly. Cranes everywhere + plants, interspersed with Dutch land + homes, small + large towns. In some ways amount of vacant land is amazing in these small countries.

Sunny, but hazy this early.

In narrow pt. of Rhine above Wessel, snapped on photo of cows in back + anchored barges + tugs before. (813) was opposite our cabin window. First sunny day scattered trees + some houses.
Sleep well, with glass beer each evening.

At noon we passed Düsseldorf.
Sun blue sky and scattered cumulus clouds.

Cake for desert (frost beet)
(for dinner)
Very good dinner.

Köln Cathedral very wonderful built but hedged in by building some old some new could not get good picture. Coll.
money at all entrances + have post-boxes standing about. Services in various chapels here + there within main building. International news stands, but Tribune sold out. And beer in Keller. Fine bass.

the castles how did they get along and support main power.

Out last night by a line around, man from Holland urged us to go to Rudesheim where had wine. Dancing for grosse and for Bubben. 9.00 for 2 bottles wine.

First and only bottle of ketchup was put on table 3 days ago with bean dinner.

Dinner last nite, 19th Ham + sweet potatoes, + 2 pear halves each with minimum juice I saw him drinking it later in galley. He and crew are eating better now too. // On 19th we had quite a sandwich lunch, lobster sandwiches and water, no canned fruit previous lunch ashore was can of peaches only. // Breakfast was 2 soft boiled eggs each

We have bread once again since native came by on April 20. Very first bottle of pickles, sweet mixed appeared in bowl on dinner table tonight, first of any kind of pickle or relish of any sort except ketchup (see above)

No lunch today we missed it and when we got back on ship at 3 noon was out to sandwiches, or even

Had a show down with Capt. on food and menu. After up on N. end reef when Hal and Andy were out fishing for our lunch which was to be cooked a beach! But they did not get back with lobsters and fish till after three p.m. So all we had for lunch was 1 can of sliced peaches between us. Movie taken of being fed from one spoon. How would fish have been later fingers + hunting knife that Andy carried. not plates or napkins but of course not needed but that preparation + he said did not know. I offered, I had urged him in beginning to eat with us instead of crew + he refused mentioned it again on 18th + he again put matter over.

RAILWAY EXPRESS DATA

Florida Ocean Int. Cr.

FIRST CLASS General Merchandise—Rates vary according to weight and distance carried.

SECOND CLASS Articles of Food and Drink with limitations, also grains, roots, seeds, etc. Rates vary according to weight and distance carried and are 25% less than First Class.

PRINTED MATTER Attractive low rates are in effect on Printed Advertising Matter, Printed Cards, Books, Calendars, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Paper, etc., and include valuation coverage up to $50.00 per shipment or 50 cents per pound without additional cost.

Special Express Rates are available for certain classes of merchandise and point to point commodity rates are available.

Shipments may be forwarded C. O. D. and charges for shipments may be Paid in Part.

All Rates and Charges include Collection and Delivery in cities and principal towns and charges may be prepaid by shipper or collected from the consignee.

Regular Express Charges include valuation coverage up to $50.00 on each shipment of 100 lbs. or less, and 50c. per lb. when shipments weigh over 100 lbs. Additional insurance may be obtained at 25c. per $100.00 or fraction thereof.

Air Express Service (Foreign & Domestic) is also available through Railway Express. Shipments for transportation by Air are accepted under the terms and conditions applying to that service. Shipments of unusual bulk or weight (over 250 lbs.) may be accepted for transportation by Air by advance arrangement. Practically all classes of matter can be handled by Air Express, except Acids, Inflammables, and some articles which can be accepted only under defined conditions.

Additional information can be secured from any Railway Express office.

The man who rests on his laurels is wearing them in the wrong place. Shreepsov
